

Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD,
whose trust is the LORD. He is like a tree planted by water, (Jer 17:7-8)

Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his strength, whose heart turns away from the LORD.

(Jer 17:5-6)

Put not your trust in princes, in a son of man, in whom there is no salvation. When his breath departs he returns to the earth; on that very day
his plans perish.

(Psalms 146:3)

At my first defense no one came to stand by me, but all deserted me. (2 Tim 4:16)

The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately sick; who can understand it? (Jer 17:9)

The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rock, in your lofty dwelling, who say in your heart, "Who will bring me down to the ground?" (Obadiah 1:3)

for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and
He knows everything. (1 Jn 3:20)

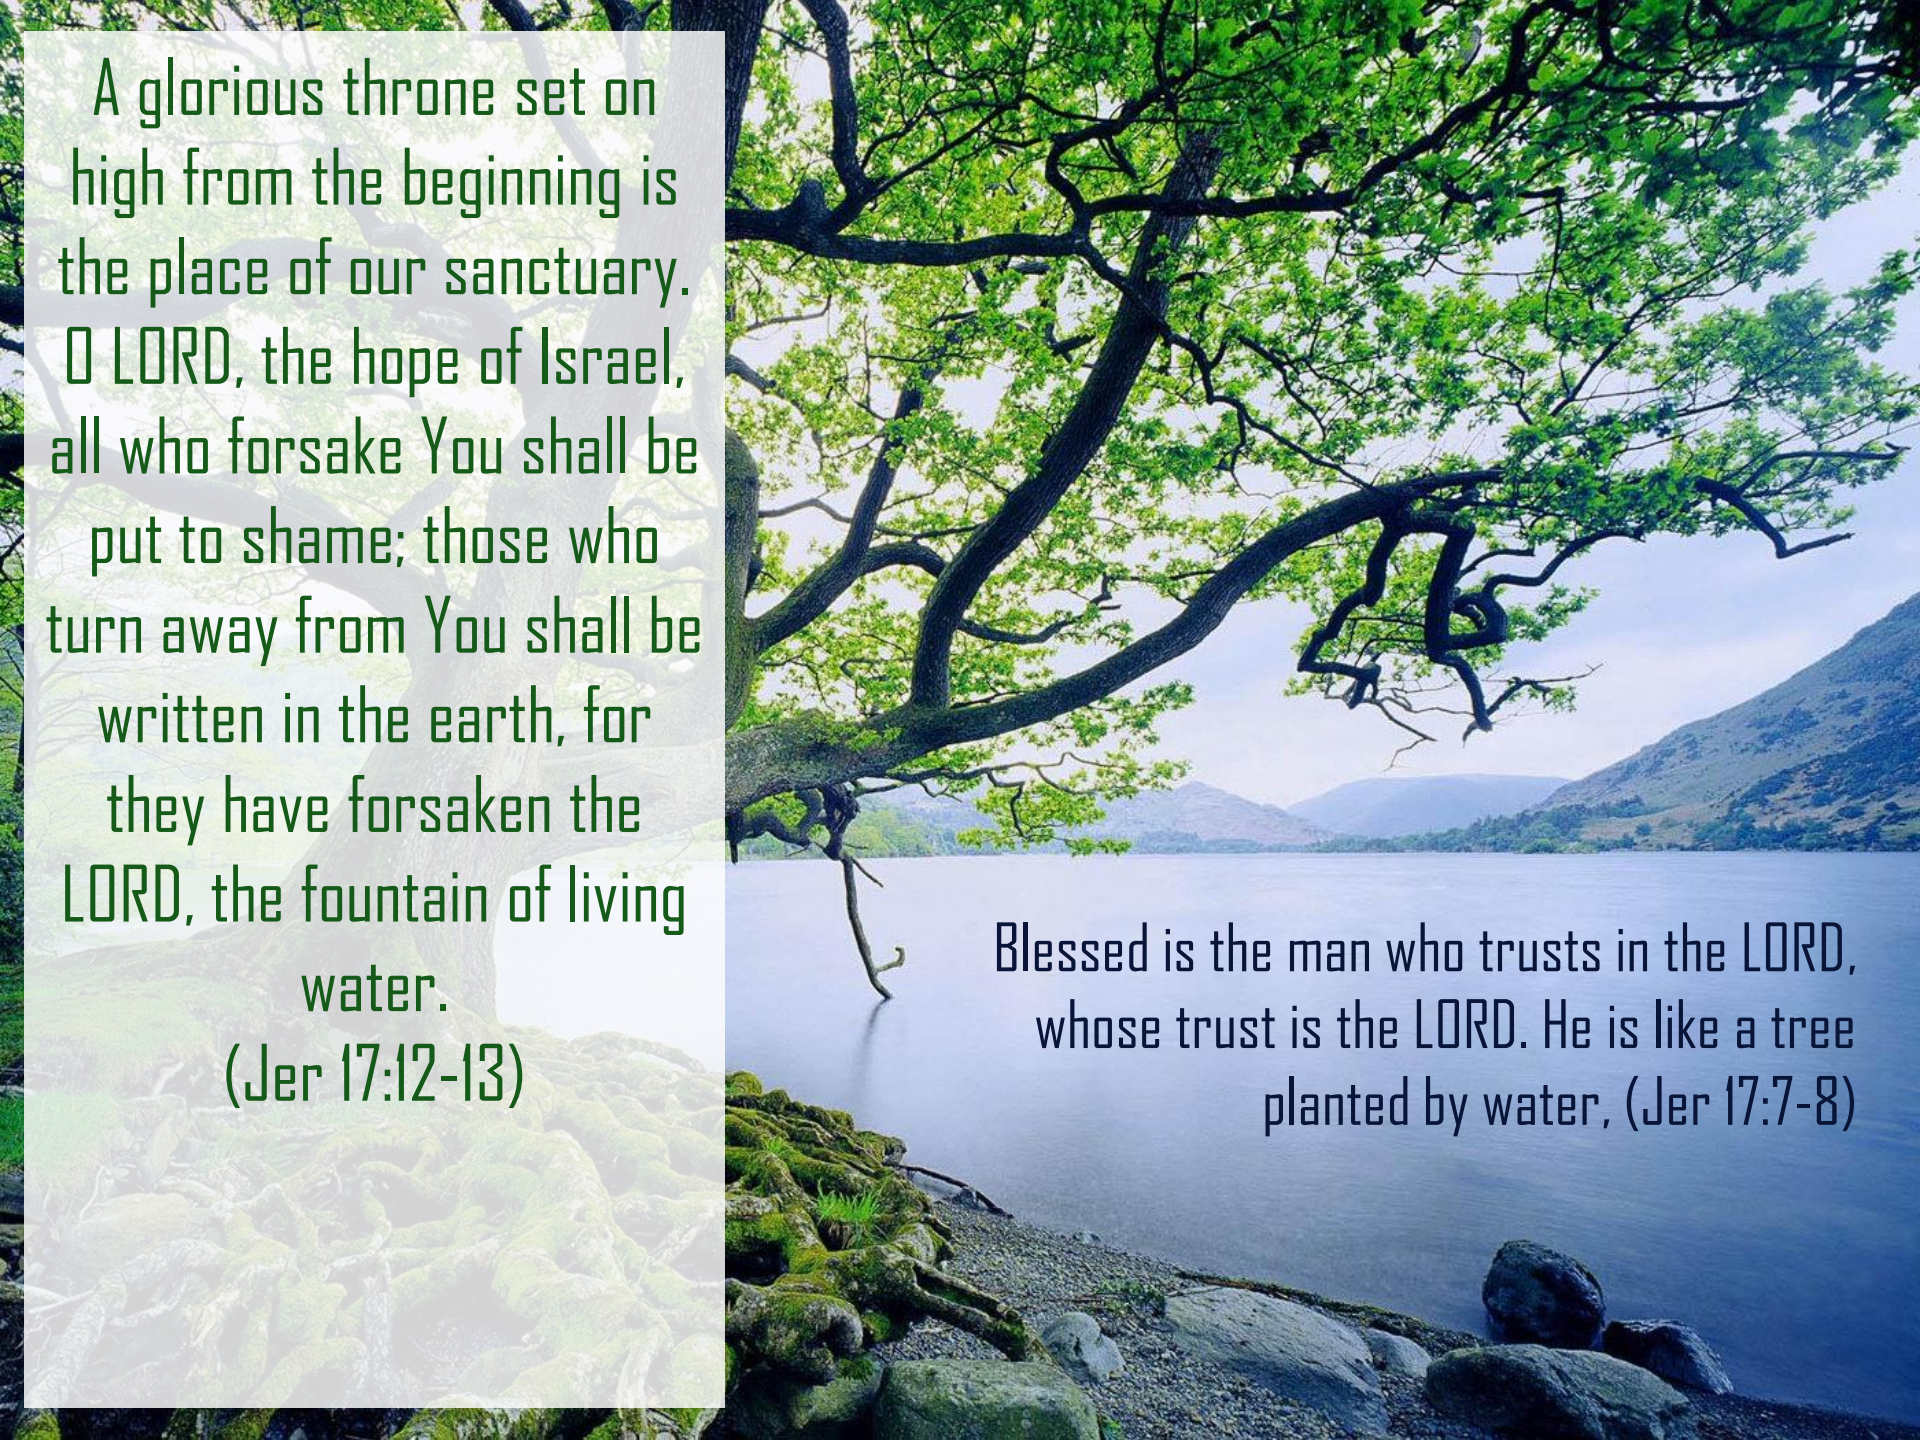

I the LORD search the heart and test the mind, to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his deeds.

(Jer. 17:10)

A glorious throne set on high from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary. O LORD, the hope of Israel, all who forsake You shall be put to shame; those who turn away from You shall be written in the earth, for they have forsaken the LORD, the fountain of living water.

(Jer 17:12-13)

Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD. He is like a tree planted by water, (Jer 17:7-8)
