(1 Peter 1:10)

For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. (John 1:17)

But we believe that we will be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they will. (Acts 15:11)

To all those in Rome who are loved by God and called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. (Rom 1:7)

But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if many died through one man's trespass, much more have the grace of God and the free gift by the grace of that one man Jesus Christ abounded for many.

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. (I Cor 1:3)

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, (Gal 1:3)

The term 'grace' is so abundant that it is mentioned in every New Testament book except 1st and 3rd John

Though you have not seen Him, you love Him. Though you do not now see Him, you believe in Him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. (1 Pet 1:8-9)

No one really understood grace until Jesus came to earth.

And He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes and be killed, and after three days rise again.

(Mark 8:31)

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life.

(Jhn 3:16)

For it was fitting that He, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the founder of their salvation perfect through suffering. (Hebrews
