

In the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which will never be destroyed, and that kingdom will not be left for another people; it will crush and put an end to all these kingdoms, but it will itself endure forever. (Dan 2:44)

He made known to us the mystery of His will according to His kind intention which He purposed in Him with a view to an administration suitable to the fullness of the times... (Eph 1:9-10)

For when Moses was about to erect the tent, he was instructed by God, saying, “See that you make everything according to the pattern that was shown you on the mountain.” But as it is, Christ has obtained a ministry that is as much more excellent than the old as the covenant He mediates is better, since it is enacted on better promises. (Heb. 8:5-6)

An open, aged scroll with Hebrew text, likely representing the Book of the Covenant. The scroll is made of parchment and is unrolled in the center, showing two pages of text. The text is written in a cursive Hebrew script. The scroll is bound with two wooden rollers, one on the left and one on the right. The parchment is yellowed and shows signs of wear, with some fraying at the edges. The background is a plain, light color.

And the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book.

(2 Chr 34:31)

For this reason we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard,
so that we do not drift away from it.

(Hebrews 2:1)

For if the word spoken through angels proved unalterable, and every transgression and disobedience received a just penalty, how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation? (Heb 2:2-3)

For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, (2 Tim 1:6)

And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray. And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. (Matt 24:11-12)
