Psa 119:137 Righteous are You, O LORD,
and upright are Your judgments.

138 You have commanded Your testimonies in righteousness and exceeding faithfulness.

139 My zeal has consumed me, because my adversaries have forgotten Your words.

140 Your word is very pure, therefore Your servant loves it.

141 I am small and despised, yet I do not forget Your precepts.

142 Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and Your law is truth.

143 Trouble and anguish have come upon me, yet Your commandments are my delight.

144 Your testimonies are righteous forever;
give me understanding that I may live.

Then Pilate said to Him, “So you are a king?” Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born, and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to My voice.”

Pilate said to Him,

“What is truth?”

176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek Your servant, for I do not forget Your commandments.

What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the open country, and go after the one that is lost, until he finds it? And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, "Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost."

Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance. (Luke 15:4-7)
