

For He grew up
before Him like a
young plant,
and like a root out of
dry ground;
He had no form or majesty that we should look at Him,
and no beauty that
we should desire
Him.
(Isaiah 53:2)

So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, “Behold the man!”
(John 19:5)

God once said this phrase about Adam (Gen 3:22)
John the Baptist said it about Jesus (Jhn 1:36)
Pilate then said it, and meant another thing entirely.

For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in His steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in His mouth.

When He was reviled, He did not revile in return; when He suffered, He did not threaten, but continued entrusting Himself to Him who judges justly.

He Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness.

By His wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (1 Pet 2:21-25)
