

DEUTERONOMY 1:22-33

Where are we going up? Our brothers have made our hearts melt, saying,
“The people are greater and taller than we” ...

DEUTERONOMY 1:22-33

The LORD your God who goes before you will Himself fight for you, just as He did for you in Egypt before your eyes, and in the wilderness, where you have seen how the LORD your God carried you...

Only take care, and keep your soul diligently, lest you forget the things that your eyes have seen, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life. Make them known to your children and your children's children—(Deut 4:9)

My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies; my ears have heard the doom of my evil assailants!
(Psalms 92:11)

DEUTERONOMY 1:22-33

where you have seen how the LORD your God carried you, as a man carries his son, all the way that you went until you came to this place.

Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk; I took them up by their arms, but they did not know that I healed them.
(Hos 11:3)

He found him in a desert land, and in the howling waste of the wilderness; He encircled him, He cared for him, He kept him as the apple of His eye. Like an eagle that stirs up its nest, that flutters over its young, spreading out its wings, catching them, bearing them on its pinions...
(Deut 32:10-11)

DEUTERONOMY 1:22-33

Yet in spite of this word you did not believe the LORD your God, who went before you in the way to seek you out a place to pitch your tents, in fire by night and in the cloud by day, to show you by what way you should go.

In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. (John 14:2-3)

But, as it is written, “What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man imagined, what God has prepared for those who love Him.” (1 Cor 2:9)
