

CORINTHIAN EPISTLES

CLASS 24 - 2ND CORINTHIANS 4-5
THE SEEN AND UNSEEN WORLD

“But we have this treasure in earthen
vessels...
(2 Cor 4:7)

The background of the entire image is a close-up, high-contrast photograph of flames. The fire is bright yellow and orange, with dark, swirling patterns of smoke and ash interspersed among the tongues of fire. The flames appear to be rising from the bottom, creating a sense of intense heat and movement.

“And since we have the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, ‘I believed and therefore I spoke,’” (2 Cor 4:13)

“And if I say, ‘I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name, then there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with forbearing, and I cannot contain.” (Jer 20:9)

For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.
(Php 1:21)

Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day. (2 Cor 4:16)

And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground,
and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being.
(Gen 2:7)

For we know that if our earthly house,
this tent, is destroyed, we have a building
from God, a house not made with hands,
eternal in the heavens. (2 Cor 5:1)
