CHAPTER 12-22 Is when things get ramp up.

John must preach from the "booklet" he ate. When he does, we begin to get a specific message concerning Rome

A detailed illustration of a multi-headed dragon, likely representing the Beast from Revelation. The dragon has a large, scaly body with a golden-brown and reddish-brown color palette. It has multiple heads, with the central head shown in profile, breathing a powerful stream of fire. The fire is bright yellow and orange, with a large plume of smoke rising from it. The background is dark and smoky, with some hints of a landscape. The dragon's scales are highly detailed, showing a mix of sharp and smooth textures. The overall style is dramatic and intense, with a focus on the dragon's power and the destruction it causes.

And the great dragon was thrown down, the serpent of old who is called the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. (Rev. 12:9)

Seven heads
Ten Horns
Seven “Diadems”

Be in pain, and labor to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail; (Mic 4:10)

and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.

(Genesis 22:18)

This woman represents God's people throughout all ages

And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all nations with a rod of iron (Rev. 12:5)

Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.
(Ps. 2:9 a Messianic Psalm)

Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call His name
Immanuel (which means, God with us).
(Matt 1:23)

This is without a doubt
Jesus the Christ

- ❖ The dragon seeks to destroy the Christ and fails.
- ❖ The Christ is caught up to heaven.
- ❖ The Christ's kingdom appears and Satan is defeated by the Christ's blood.
- ❖ The dragon persecutes the woman, but God gives her wings for 3.5 years.
- ❖ The dragon tries to kill her with a flood from his mouth... but the earth drinks it instead.
- ❖ The dragon is left to persecute her other children because he couldn't get the Child.

DANIEL 7

And in the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that shall never be destroyed, nor shall the kingdom be left to another people. It shall break in pieces all these kingdoms and bring them to an end, and it shall stand forever, (Dan 2:44)

Compare this beast to Rev. 13!

THE BEAST OUT OF THE SEA IS ROME

- Ten horns = total power
- Seven head = complete intelligence
- Diadems = Crown of Power
- Attributes Of The 3 Previous Kingdoms
- Satanic in appearance because it receives its power from Satan
- Trickiest part about the description is that one head that was mortally wounded.

THERE ARE TWO TIMES IN THE HISTORY OF THE CAESARS WHEN THE NATION ALMOST FELL APART.

Julius Caesar killed on the Senate floor

(I don't think this is it because it says "one of the heads" implying that the nation had been established for a while already. Julius began the Caesars.)

Nero's decadence almost destroyed the nation.

Nero was the first persecutor of Christians and an extremely extravagant, narcissistic Caesar. Nero committed suicide and threw the kingdom into two years of chaos and civil war (68-69 AD).
